They are:

'I Am Who I Am' - Ambrosha Tarei-Morete and Brenna Marriott

AND

'Matariki te Whetu Atatu' - Tomairangi Chaffey-Apouri and TeAoMarama Geraghty

They are both truly excellent. Congratulations!

Thank you to all 50 song entrants and we encourage you all to keep up your interest songwriting.

"The Anthem In Black ® competition was driven by the current focus on songs that epitomise our sense of place and an emerging 'choral voice' that large gatherings are bringing to our lives.

We are learning to sing en masse and we need songs that are perfect for that environment. What better place to look than in our secondary schools."
